

Anthony N. Lusardi

| Corvallis, OR | 541.360.8573 | lusardia@oregonstate.edu |

Education

- 2016-Present Continuing college classes at Oregon State University towards Statistics and Communication with cumulative 3.6 GPA - anticipated graduation 2020
- 2014-2016 Concluded 2 and half years of mission work life coinciding with college-level classes towards religious formation
- 2012-2014 Attended Linn Benton Community College with GPA of 3.5
 - Won the Focus Communication Award for excelling in academics

Relevant Course Work and Projects

- Proficient coding in R for statistical analysis and data analyzing
- Conducts conventional surveying methods to collect data for social experiments and business models to increase sales
- Significant expertise working in Excel with various data models in conjunction with Power BI
- Substantial experience conducting hypothesis tests by using statistical methods to estimate significant results and confidence intervals
- Conducts multivariate regression analysis and tests for efficacy for linear models to explain data
- Experience cleaning large datasets to prepare data for analysis and training sets for machine learning algorithms
- Is currently serving as a secondary statistics consultant for OSU Statistics Department

Work Experience

Data Analyst / The Old Spaghetti Factory / Corvallis, OR / 9/16 – Present

- Designed a machine learning algorithm to forecast guest counts to improve revenue for the company
- Created a mobile app to calculate maximum profit for server's income
- Performs data analysis of check averages providing managers tactics to increase weekly sales
- Redesigned company's training tactics based on improvements found in salesmanship meetings
- Provides exceptionally friendly and efficient customer service and demonstrated high problem-solving ability in stressful and hectic situations
- Recognized as one of top employees; based on up-selling profit and highest check average per year
- Promoted to bartender after 6 months of service

Work Experience Abroad

Missionary Work / St. John's Society / Argentina / 2/14 - 5/16

- Fully immersed in a foreign culture living under difficult conditions
- Successfully established a mission plan for neighborhoods with long- and short-term goals.
- Lived an itinerant lifestyle, adapting to culture and demographics,
- Organized large public events regularly for 150 individuals
- Taught 50 young adults weekly adapting curriculum based on audience groups
- Constructed plans to improve the living conditions of underprivileged townspeople as well as incarcerated individuals
- Completely bi-lingual in Spanish

Entrepreneurship and Extracurricular Activities

President and Founder / BridgeUSA chapter / Oregon State University / 11/17 - Present

- Founded a successful chapter of a nationally recognized organization, BridgeUSA -dedicated towards creating opportunities for polite, empathetic, intellectual discourse on college campuses
- Organized and hosted a free TED Talk featuring nationally recognized speakers on promoting dialogue over division for over 200 students.
- Awarded "Outstanding Student Organization" by over 3000 academics through the Heterodox Academy national Open Mind Awards Conference for its commitment to convening students on campus to foster much-needed dialogue

Cofounder / Civil Discourse Club / Linn-Benton Community College / 11/17-3/18

- Cofounded one of the most successful and engaging clubs on campus that aims to create dialogue between diverse viewpoints within the student body
- Conducted faculty training for promoting diversity of ideas in the workplace with the "Bring Your Whole Self to Work" movement
- Won "Club of the Year" award for engaging students in constructive discourse on contentious issues on campus
- Actively volunteers to help debate in entry level communication classes at LBCC
- Participates in National Summits with student-led organization BridgeUSA
 - EarthX, Dallas, TX 2018, 2019
 - American Promise Conference, Washington D.C. 2019